Timeform Ratings Update

"So often the St James's Palace Stakes is a race that confirms the best 3-y-o miler, but with different winners of the 2000 Guineas, Irish 2000 Guineas and this race, that title is very much up for grabs. In Timeform's opinion, the best of the crop so far is King of Comedy (126p) despite the fact he didn't win any of those races.

There are lots of reasons why bare margins between horses at the finish line shouldn't necessarily be taken as a true reflection of merit. Trouble in running, tactics, and the efficiency of how a horse is ridden are just three factors that will affect the bare rating a horse can achieve.

Timeform have been pioneers among ratings compilers in using sectional analysis to inform its ratings and it is for this reason that King of Comedy is rated as the clear pick of the horses that ran in the St James's Palace Stakes. Had he been ridden in a more efficient manner, rather than having to make up more ground than ideal at the end of a race that wasn't truly run, it is Timeform's opinion he would have won comfortably, so he has been rated accordingly."

The Group One G1 St James's Palace Stakes is the sire making race whose winners include King Of Comedy's own sire Kingman as well as Frankel, Shamardal and Giants Causeway. While recent second placegetters of the race include current rising star sires Night Of Thunder and Toronado.

King Of Comedy put in an outstanding effort to finish second beaten a neck by Champion 3YO Miler in France Circus Maximus and half a length ahead of Champion 3YO Colt in Europe Too Darn Hot.

His performance was so blatantly eye-catching that Timeform labelled King of Comedy the best rated 3yo in Europe. The sectional breakdown of the race showed that King Of Comedy finished fastest of all. He also covered at least 3 metres more than Circus Maximus and Too Darn Hot.

At 2 years: Sandown Good Care Group 2YO S. (1400m beating Persian Moon and Topical).

At 3 years: Sandown Heron S., L (1600m beating Roseman and Sangarius), Yarmouth Eastern Power Systems of Norwich S. (1600m beating Land of Legends and Edaaraat), 2nd Royal Ascot St James's Palace S., Gr.1 (1600m to Circus Maximus beating Too Damn Hot), Newmarket Joel S., Gr.2 (1600m to Benbatl beating Zaaki), 4th York International S., Gr.1 (2050m).

At 4 years: 2nd Newbury Diomed S., Gr.3 (1600m to Century Dream beating Zaaki). World Thoroughbred Ratings: 118 (in 2019).
